Murder Victim
Franklin, Tennessee
February 1, 1991

PEGGY COX

DETAILS

On February 1, 1991, victim Peggy Cox, who had turned 49 years old that day, was working the drive-thru window at the Hardee's Restaurant located at 1315 Murfreesboro Road in Franklin, Tennessee. At approximately 11:45 p.m., Cox received a food order at her drive-thru station. When the vehicle arrived at the window, Cox was fatally shot with a small caliber weapon. The assailant drove off without taking anything of value from the restaurant.

Cox's son, who was also working at the restaurant at the time of the murder, heard gunshots and found his mother lying near the drive-thru window. Cox was taken to the hospital, where she died from a single gunshot wound to the neck.

Despite law enforcement efforts, this case remains unsolved.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $15,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individual or individuals responsible for this crime.
